

Date: 4/5/02

What is claimed is:

1. A manual cordless hairdryer, comprising:
 - A) a demountable cordless hairdryer wherein a rechargeable battery provides electricity thus eliminating electrical cord;
 - B) a battery system without memory, that can be left in the charger constantly without a negative effect, means that the battery has a long lasting life;
 - C) a manual cordless hairdryer wherein a cordless charger charges the battery maintaining the user from a distance of any personal injury and damage from the electricity, which means that the user is not limited to a confined area;
 - D) a battery connected to a multiple speed control switch joined to a motor that turns the fan to blow air with a re-chargeable interchangeable battery system sandwiched in the handset includes a metal contact (-) that can be used to hold the battery.

Date: 4/5/02

2. The manual cordless hairdryer set forth in claim 1 wherein said a cordless portable charger with a plug, to be used in an electric outlet that charges the battery at any time by installing the device attached to the battery charger reducing the current to a trickle rate.

3. The manual cordless hairdryer set forth in claim 2 wherein said a manual cordless hairdryer mounted to a portable cordless charger, serving as a holder base with a led to indicate when the battery is charged.

4. The manual cordless hairdryer set forth in claim 3 wherein said handle, body and charger assemblies are made out of any suitable plastic materials, metal and electronic components.